THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.18382 OF 1997

O R D E R:

In this writ petition, the petitioner-establishment questions the order passed by the Authority under the Minimum Wages Act and Labour Officer, Patancheru, in M.C.No.111/94, dated 08-02-1997, whereby it has allowed the claim for Rs.16,105/- towards minimum wages and compensation of Rs.32,210/- to the workmen by the petitioner-establishment.

At the time of hearing, it is noticed that the workmen, in whose favour the order was passed by the Authority under the Minimum Wages Act, are not made parties to the writ petition. In the absence of the beneficiaries of the impugned order dated 08-02-1997, the writ petition cannot be adjudicated as the result in the writ petition may prejudice the interest of the workmen. As the writ petition is defectively constituted, it is liable to be dismissed on this short ground. However, liberty is given to the petitioner-establishment to file a fresh writ petition within six weeks from today by impleading the workmen as parties to the fresh writ petition.
